

COOKIE POLICY

Effective date: August 18, 2020

Electroneek Robotics, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”, “us” or “we”) value your privacy and strive to be transparent about our use of certain technologies that can have effect on your privacy expectations.

This Cookie Policy explains how and why cookies, web beacons, pixels, clear gifs, and other similar technologies (collectively “Tracking Technologies”) may be stored on and accessed from your device when you use or visit the website located at www.electroneek.com or any other website owned or operated by the Company (collectively, the “Company Sites”). Our privacy policy and terms of use apply to this Cookie Policy.

What are Tracking Technologies?

A cookie is a small text file that, subject to your agreement, can be stored on and accessed from your device when you visit one of the Company Sites. The other tracking technologies work similarly to cookies and place small data files on your devices or monitor your activity on any of the Company Sites to enable us to collect information about how you use the Company Sites. You can find more information at www.allaboutcookies.org and www.youronlinechoices.eu.

First and Third-Party Cookies

“First party Cookies” are cookies that we place on your device. “Third party Cookies” are cookies that a party, other than us, places on your device through any of the Company Sites.

What types of Tracking Technologies Do We Use?

We use the following types of cookies:

Persistent Cookies. We use persistent Cookies to improve your experience of using the Company Sites. This includes recording your acceptance of our Cookie Policy to remove the cookie message which first appears when you use the Company Sites.

Session Cookies. Session Cookies are temporary and deleted from your machine when your web browser closes. We use session Cookies to help us track internet usage as described above.

You may refuse to accept browser Cookies through the appropriate setting on your internet browser. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of the Company Sites. Unless your internet browser is set up to refuse Cookies, our system will issue Cookies when you direct your browser to our Company Sites.

We do not keep the data collected by the Company Sites and/or through Tracking Technologies that may be placed on your computer for longer than is necessary to fulfill the purposes mentioned above.

We use Tracking Technologies for the following purposes:

Type of Cookie	Purpose of Cookie
----------------	-------------------

Strictly Necessary/ Technical	These Cookies are necessary to allow us to operate the Company Sites so you may access them as you have requested. These Cookies, for example, let us recognize that you have created an account and have logged into that account to access the Site content. They also include Cookies that enable us to remember your previous actions within the same browsing session and secure the Company Sites.
Analytical/ Performance	These Cookies are used by us or third-party service providers to analyze how the Company Sites are used and how they are performing. For example, these Cookies track what pages are most frequently visited, and from what locations our visitors come from. If you subscribe to a newsletter or otherwise register with the Company Sites, these Cookies may be correlated to you.
Functionality	These Cookies allow us to operate the Company Sites in accordance with the choices you make. These Cookies permit us to “remember” you in-between visits. For instance, we will recognize your user name and remember how you customized the Company Sites and services, for example by adjusting text size, fonts, languages and other parts of web pages that are alterable, and provide you with the same customizations during future visits
Third Party Advertising	These Cookies collect information about your activities on these and other sites to provide you targeted advertising. We may also allow our third-party service providers to use Cookies on the Company Sites for the same purposes identified above, including collecting information about your online activities over time and across different websites.

How do I refuse or withdraw my consent to the use of Tracking Technologies?

If you do not want Cookies to be placed on your device, you can set the specific settings of your internet browser to reject the some or all Cookies and to alert you when a Cookie is placed on your device.

For more information on the development of user-profiles and the use of targeting/advertising Cookies, please see www.youronlinechoices.eu if you are located in Europe or www.aboutads.info/choices if in the United States.

What Other Tracking Technologies Do We Use?

We may collect information about your use of the Company Sites through web beacons.

A web beacon is a graphic image, which is placed on a website or in an email that alone or in conjunction with cookies compile information about your usage of or your interaction with a Company Site or email. The analysis gathered helps us improve the effectiveness of content and format of the Company Site and email communications.

How do I refuse or withdraw my consent to the use of Web Beacons?

You may avoid web beacons by configuring your email reader program to disable the functionality that enables remote images to load and by refraining from clicking on any links in email messages.
